Special Abilities:

Distance VIsion: Abednedo eye's are spaced further apart than most species, and they have superior distance vision than normal species. This gives them a bonus +1D to all dice rolls involving sight at long distances, such as search. But they also lose -1D to all dice rolls involving their sight, requiring fine up close work.

Story Factors:

Natural in cramped spaces: Having evolved from a tunnelling forebear, Abednedo are naturals in cramped spaces and do not suffer from claustrophobia in any way. For example where another pilot might feel relieved and glad to be outside when he climbs out of a fighter cockpit after many hours, an Abednedo will feel no different.
