Description: Vasik Aldritch was one of three leaders of the Final Occultation during the Republic Era, alongside Heldi Cerebron and another individual. Sometime between 40 BBY and 32 BBY, all three leaders of the Final Occultation and dozens of other members were arrested and held in a prison ship, though the members of the cult were eventually able to take over the prison ship. During this period of time, the Sith Lord Darth Sidious sent his apprentice Darth Maul to the ship in order to capture the cult leaders, seeing them as threats to the Sith's plans but wanting to interrogate them. Maul instead boarded the ship and killed Aldritch, along with the rest of the cult.
