

VerdanTech VT-5 Pistol

The VT-5 was designed for legal agencies once again but before they could offer the weapon out, it was leaked that it was crafted for hitmen. It turned out Mestic

Munitions had found out about the weapon and they 'leaked' the info to kill the deal.

In a panic VerdantTech protested that it was not true and still got a few contracts from planetary enforcement agencies but lost all the big sector wide groups. However, criminal organizations came to VerdantTech with contracts as well thanks to that leak and VerdantTech secretly made alot of money from selling the weapons to organized crime for their hitmen.

The weapon is specially balanced and machined out precisely making it an expensive but very accurate weapon in the hands of a skilled marksman.
