

Weapons D6 / Mestic Munitions Wolverine

Wolverine Assault Pistol

Mestic Munitions' Wolverine assault pistol was designed as a heavy pistol with longer range than most standard Mestic hand-held firearms to date. Unlike all of the other pistols designed and manufactured by Mestic Munitions, the Wolverine's clip is not loaded into the handle, but it is locked into the gun just in front of the trigger. This created a slight problem that Mestic designers overlooked... it would not fit in any standard holsters. Instead of simple designing a new holster for the weapon, Mestic opted to go ahead and sell the weapon at discount to rid the massive piles that they had already created at discounted prices.
