

Vehicles D20 / Ubrikkian RLT-1(h) Repu

Heavy Repulsortank

When one thinks of the Imperial Army, one usually envisions the mighty Imperial AT-AT walkers that tower over many battle fields. Though walkers do play a major role in the Imperial Army, there are many other vehicles of war that are found in common use that range from small military speeder bikes and swoops to CAVs to Chariot command speeders to the massive forms of the Juggernauts and Floating Fortresses.

The Ubrikkian RLT-1(h) repulsortank is one of the more powerful repulsorlift tanks in service today. It features a heavily armored hull, a heavy laser cannon, four antipersonnel repeating blasters, and even a small deflector shield generator.
