

Vehicles D6 / Neral Neo-Y11 Anti-Uprising

RanCorp Crowd Control Tank

This tank is meant to carry riot control teams to the action and also pack a nasty anti-riot punch. It has glop missile (big brothers to the infamous glop grenades) and a cannon that fires extremely hot water at high pressure. The vehicle can suppress large groups quickly and is actually less expensive than the airspeeders but more susceptible to attack.
