Description: Seripas's armored suit was a mechanized suit of armor utilized by the bounty hunter Seripas when he was affiliated with Sugi and her band of bounty hunters. It was used to conceal Seripas's small stature and look intimidating, as well as to boast a powerful circular saw and double-barrelled repeating blaster.

In Circa 22 BBY, it was destroyed when a Weequay pirate shot at it as Seripas was defending a small farming village with his fellow bounty hunters and Jedi allies.
