Description: The First Order All Terrain Scout Transport (AT-ST) was a model of All Terrain Scout

Transport walker manufactured by Kuat-Entralla Drive Yards and fielded by the First Order. Clad in next-generation reinforced composite armor, this updated design's improved gyroscopic systems made it more stable than preceding AT-ST models used by the Galactic Empire. One First Order AT-ST stored in the hangar of the Supremacy was hijacked by BB-8 to rescue Finn and Rose Tico from stormtroopers.
