Description: Dio was a highly modified ID10 seeker droid which was utilized by Agent Del Meeko and Iden Versio of Inferno Squad during the Galactic Civil War. It served its masters faithfully during their service to the Galactic Empire and their subsequent defection to the New Republic. After being disabled by an ion pulse during the Battle of Theed and subsequent reactivation, the droid received a new yellow and white paint job and also acquired a very affectionate personality which caused it to constantly hound the Duros Shriv Suurgav. Whilst Del thought it cute, Shriv found the droid's newfound liking of him to be annoying.
