Description: Fantail-class destroyers were warships made by the Corporate Alliance.

History
Around 34 BBY, Corporate Alliance Fantail-class destroyers along with Sikurdian privateer vessels blockaded the Malastare Narrows to settle a dispute over fuel allocations. In the subsequent Battle of Malastare Narrows, Alliance Admiral Trench lost his flagship and the blockade was disbanded.

Fantail-class ships later served in the Confederate Navy during the Clone Wars. Amongst other scenes, they were a prominent part of the Confederate fleet at the Battle of Belderone.
