Biography

Clone Wars

Coleman Kcaj was an Ongree male Jedi Master born on Skustell who took a seat on the Jedi Council, the governing body of the Jedi Order in 19 BBY.

Kcaj was present during a Council meeting concerning the fate of Padawan Ahsoka Tano, who was accused of the murder of Letta Turmond and orchestrating the bombing of the Jedi Temple. Wilhuff Tarkin said that the Galactic Senate wished to put her in a military trial. The Council expelled Tano from the Order after a debate and she was put on trial by the Galactic Republic, but Padawan Barriss Offee was ultimately revealed to be the true culprit.

After clone trooper Tup, whose malfunctioning and secret biochip caused him to murder Jedi Master Tiplar, was sent to Kamino to have the incident investigated, Kcaj was present in a council meeting through holographic form when Jedi Master Shaak Ti turned to the council with the belief that Tup may have a tumor.

Later, Kcaj was present when the Council agreed to send Jedi Master Mace Windu alongside Junior Representative Jar Jar Binks on an assignment to investigate a number of disappearances on Bardotta after Queen Julia.

Kcaj was present when Plo Koon reported that he found the lightsaber of Master Sifo-Dyas. Yoda confirmed that it was and decided to investigate. Kcaj was again present when it was reported that Dooku was responsible for the creation of the clone army. The Council decided to keep it a secret since people would lose trust in the Republic if the truth became public knew.

Kcaj was later present when Yoda told the Council that he had heard the voice of long-dead Jedi Master Qui-Gon Jinn in his head and hoped to learn the meaning of the communications from beyond. The Council all meditated with Yoda, but nobody heard the voice.

Kcaj was later present when Obi-Wan Kenobi and Anakin Skywalker discussed a giant kyber crystal they had found on Utapau. Kcaj was present again when they reported that the crystal had been destroyed, causing Yoda to remind the Council of stories where kyber crystals were used for weapons the Sith used.

Near the end of the war, Kcaj was present when the Council granted Skywalker a seat on the Jedi Council, after he had been appointed there by Supreme Chancellor Sheev Palpatine. He was later present when the council discussed about how Palpatine had said that General Grievous was hiding on Utapau and recommended they send Skywalker to lead the campaign. However, the council decided that they needed a Master, with more experience, and decided on sending Kenobi instead. Shortly thereafter, Palpatine declared himself Emperor and Skywalker, having become the Sith Lord Darth Vader, helped destroy the Jedi Order.

Surviving the Jedi Purge
During the reign of the Galactic Empire, Kcaj was among the few Jedi to escape the ensuing carnage that was Order 66. At one point presumed to have been killed, Kcaj's name was later included on a holographic list compiled by the Inquisitorius of confirmed survivors in the time after the hunt for Eeth Koth, having hidden from the Empire extremely well.

Personality and traits
Coleman Kcaj had yellow eyes and yellow skin. Kcaj was also skilled in meditation, military strategy, diplomacy and lightsaber warfare. During his younger years, he was a formidable warrior but over time he came to see battle as a tragic failure to find mutual understanding.

Equipment
Coleman Kcaj wore Jedi robes and wielded a green-bladed lightsaber.
