Description: Lieutenant Oxixo was a human male who served the Galactic Empire as a TIE fighter pilot during the Galactic Civil War. In 0 BBY, he was flying a TIE/ln space superiority starfighter as a sentry in the Alderaan system when the YT-1300 light freighter known as the Millennium Falcon escaped from the Death Star. Oxixo attacked the Falcon but was killed when his starfighter was destroyed by the freighter's laser cannons.

Biography
Oxixo pursued the Millennium Falcon in the Alderaan system, where he and his fellow pilots were killed.

Oxixo was a human male TIE fighter pilot who served in the Starfighter Corps of the Imperial Navy during the Galactic Civil War with the military rank of lieutenant. In 0 BBY, Oxixo was stationed on board the Death Star battle station while it was located in the Alderaan system following the destruction of the planet Alderaan. When the YT-1300 light freighter known as the Millennium Falcon escaped from the Death Star carrying the rebel Princess Leia Organa, Oxixo was piloting one of several TIE/ln space superiority starfighters acting as sentry craft in the Alderaan system.

Four TIEs, including Oxixo's starfighter, attacked the Falcon and managed to score several hits on it. After the TIE formation scattered wide, Oxixo perished in the attack as all four starfighters were destroyed by the freighter's laser cannons, which were manned by the ship's captain, Han Solo, and passenger Luke Skywalker.

Personality and traits
By the time of his death, Oxixo was not a rookie.

Equipment
Oxixo carried an E-11 blaster rifle and wore a black Imperial pilot's uniform with a distinctive silver crest painted on the helmet that distinguished him from other members of his squadron. The helmet also bore his name in High Galactic.
