

Starships D6 / RanCorp Medical Frigate

RanCorp Medical Frigate

The ME-8 med frigate is a small streamlined frigate. It looks like a small scale Mon Calamari cruiser. It holds many medical wards, bacta tanks, med droids, and Medics. The frigates can handle up to 745 patients. It's hangar bays do not hold fighters but they hold up to 8 Medevac Shuttles. The ME-8 usually stays back in space battles and sends out shuttles to help pick up survivors.
