Description: Nemec was a clone trooper who joined the clone resistance network founded by Clone Captain Rex. Nemec was part of a mission that conducted an attack on the prisoner transport ship alongside the defectors Gregor, Echo, and Fireball to rescue former captain Howzer and two other clones.

Biography

"Nemec" was created on the planet Kamino as a clone of the human male bounty hunter Jango Fett to serve as a clone trooper in the Galactic Republic's clone army during the Clone Wars against the Separatist Alliance. After the conclusion of the Clone Wars and the formation of the Galactic Empire in 19 BBY, Nemec would join rogue Clone Captain Rex's resistance network.

At some point in 18 BBY, Nemec would take part in a raid on an Imperial prisoner transport ship that was transporting disobedient clones to an Imperial facility on the planet Weyland. After boarding the vessel, Nemec battled through the ship's TK stormtrooper crew alongside Echo and eventually secured the vessel's bridge. Holding the transport's officer at gunpoint, Nemec demanded to know where the imprisoned clones were being transported to, but the Imperial officer instead bit down on a suicide shocker, killing himself instantly. After extracting as much data as possible from the ship's databank, Nemec and the raiding party would flee the ship upon the arrival of an Imperial Venator-class Star Destroyer. As the prisoner transport was strafed and destroyed by a squadron of Alpha-3 Nimbus-class V-wing starfighters, Nemec and the other rogue clones jumped into hyperspace on their ship.
