Description: Ragnar was a human male Mandalorian and the son of Paz Vizsla who in or after 9 ABY was inducted into the Mandalorian cult the Children of the Watch by a woman known as "the Armorer." Not long after his induction, he was defeated by fellow foundling Grogu in a combat training session. The session was interrupted when Ragnar was abducted by a large raptor. The raptor swallowed Ragnar whole before it attempted to feed him to its young. A rescue party led by Bo-Katan Kryze that included Paz Vizsla and Din Djarin recovered Ragnar from the creature's nest one day later. Ragnar, along with the rest of the covert, moved to the planet Nevarro.

Ragnar, along with the rest of his covert and Kryze's tribe, returned to Mandalore. There, he completed the ritual that was interrupted by a Dinosaur turtle at the Living Waters in the Mines of Mandalore.
