Description: A type of transport was used by the New Republic Defense Fleet during Ahsoka Tano's search for Ezra.
The transports had four hangar bays, with two on each side. A shuttle carrying the fallen Jedi Knight Baylan Skoll and his apprentice Shin Hati boarded the Vesper and massacred everyone aboard while they rescued the prisoner Morgan Elsbeth.

At one point, three such transports exited from hyperspace.

During the New Republic Era, at least four transports were part of a fleet that also included the MC80A Home One Type Heavy Star Cruiser Home One, EF76 Nebulon-B escort frigates, CR90 corvettes, and Sphyrna-class Hammerhead corvettes.
