Description: The Queen Xiri was a fishing boat on the planet Eiram captained by Okoro during the High Republic Era. In the time after the Destruction of Starlight Beacon, its crew brought on Jedi Padawan Bell Zettifar during his search for his friend and fellow Padawan Burryaga Agaburry. It shared its name with Xiri A'lbaran, a Princess of Eiram's sister planet E'ronoh that lived over a century earlier, married into Eiram's royal family, and was destined to become Eiram's Queen.
