Description: Gripp Liskell is a human trader, who transports a lot of shipments around the Tenoo sector and becomes a partner with the Durango Shuttle Service. He arrived with Ceeli and Kryys Durango to sign a deal to discover their garage covered with feathers from Firehawk chicks which had temporarily taken up residence there. Although the garage was messy he was impressed by the way that Nash Durango had handled the situation, and that she had helped the Firehawks a species that he had a fondness for. and wanted to work with the Durango's, becoming a partner with them. When Nash offered him a chance to see the Firehawks in their natural environment he gratefully agreed and travelled with her to the mountains to see these creatures he had always wanted to see.
