Description: The Taris Civil Authority gunship was used on the planet of Taris around 3964 BBY by the Taris Civil Authority. One was used in the attempted capture of Zayne Carrick for his alleged involvement in the Padawan Massacre. It could carry at least 10 people aboard and was equipped with a public-address system. The gunship was not spaceworthy so, in the event of fugitives escaping to orbit, the Taris Civil Authority's police cruisers would be used instead.
