Description: Brendok, or Brendock, was a mysterious planet in the galaxy. During the Great Hyperspace Disaster, the planet was rendered lifeless but life had mysteriously returned to the planet by 148 BBY. A Jedi expedition led by Jedi Master Indara was sent to investigate the cause of this mysterious rejuvenation, which was attributed to a vergence in the Force. The Jedi encountered Mother Aniseya and her coven, leading to a conflict that destroyed the coven and the adoption of survivor Verosha Aniseya by the Jedi Order. Osha's sister Mae-ho Aniseya vowed revenge on the Jedi involved in her coven's demise.

Places of Interest

Brendok fortress

Brendok fortress was a former mining facility in the Northlands of the planet Brendok, annexed by a coven of witches led by Mother Aniseya following their exile. For many years during the High Republic Era, they operated in peace there.

Rite of Ascension courtyard

A courtyard was used for the Rite of Ascension ceremony held by Mother Aniseya's coven of witches during the High Republic Era.
