Heat Dissipation: Dashade can dissipate the heat that emanates from their bodies, making it difficult to detect them with equipment that tracks by heat. All checks made to detect a Dashade character who is consciously reducing his heat signature, using thermal or infrared equipment, are made at a -2D penalty.

Heat Resistance: Dashade are highly resistant to Radiation, this gives them a bonus +1D to resist any radiation damage, or to resist the effects of radiation.

Force Resistance: Dashade are resistant to Force powers that utilize the Alter skill. All Alter rolls made for Force powers directed at a Dashade character have their difficulties increased by one level (Easy to Moderate, or Moderate to Difficult for example). A Force-using Dashade character who attempts to use Alter-based Force powers Increased by two levels (Easy to Difficult, Difficult to Heroic for example).
