Description: Bubbles was an Xi'Dec present on the planet Lanupa around 9 ABY. They were standing at the entry to Skull Ridge Mountain Hotel & Spa beside a few fellows, including a female hotelier, when former pirate Captain Jod Na Nawood emerged from an access hatch embedded in the landing path. Bubbles and the other bystanders were greeted by the man, who at the same time failed to realize the hotel was under pirate attack. Gunter, one of the pirate invaders, approached Jod from behind and ensured his quick apprehension.

Bubbles had light-blue eyes and white hair and skin. A member of the insectoidan Xi'Dec species, they had four upper limbs and engorged egg sacs on their belly.
