Description: Wendle was a human male individual who resided on the planet At Attin during the New Republic Era where he lived together with his son Wim. In 9 ABY, Wim found an old starship buried in the woods outside their city. Together with three other children called Neel, KB, and Fern, Wim investigated the ship but they accidentally activated it and became lost in space. Together with Fern's mother Fara, Wendle tried to find the children and bring them back home.

Battle of At Attin

Wendle played a small but decisive role during the Battle of At Attin. His knowledge as a Level 7 Systems Coordinator allowed him to restore power to the clamps holding the Onyx Cinder which made it possible to release them, allowing KB to start the ship and alert the New Republic which brought the turning point in the battle when the New Republic X-Wings engaged and destroyed the pirate ship.

Character and traits

Wendle was a single father having lost Wim's mother at some unspecified point prior to 9 ABY to some unspecified cause. He was hard working and cared deeply for his only child, Wim, but could not make enough time for him due to the demands of his work. Wendle was cautious and could be a strict parent at times but ultimately trusted his son and the rest of the Skeleton Crew during the Battle of At Attin.
