Description: Sunif Brecanti was a male human with light skin. During the Imperial Era, they worked as the broker for a co-op of nine webberies in the Beldoni Valley on Ghorman. In 3 BBY, Brecanti addressed a town hall in Palmo, In the address they stated that all of their clients were considering not opening their hives the following spring due to Galactic Empire's ground inspections, freight penalties, and shipping codes changing without warning. They told their electors at the hall the Empire was killing them and that the electors were letting it happen. During the meeting the had greying hair and wore a maroon suit over a white shirt.
