Game Notes: A filling breakfast, often eaten by children

Description: Crunchies were a type of pebble-sized cereal that was edible to humans. Blue and purple in color, the spherical treats could be served in bowls of blue milk. Former Preox-Morlana Deputy Inspector Syril Karn was given crunchies by his mother in 5 BBY after he was let go from Pre-Mor Enforcement. Karn at first refrained from consuming the dish, instead plucking one of the crunchies from his milk and giving it a thorough inspection. Eventually, however, Karn ate his crunchies.
