Special Abilities:

Antenna: Nobillians have a set of Antenna which sense air movements around them, this allows them to navigate in the dark with greater ease, avoiding bumping into walls and objects, although it doesn't allow them to see in the dark. They can also notice anyone or anything in close proximity behind them, giving them a +1D to detect this.

Story Factors:

Insectoid Metabolism: Nobillians are insects and tend to be more active than other species, requiring only half as much sleep as humans and similar races.

Move: 10/12

Description: Nobillians were a species of insectoid beings found in the galaxy. Among their numbers was Neeva, an enemy of the criminal Boggs Triff. Multiple members of the species attended the Canto Casino and Racetrack on Cantonica in 34 ABY.
