Description: The Imperial ambunaut was an ambulance speeder used by the Galactic Empire to smoothly transport medical patients. In 1 BBY, Axis leader Luthen Rael was taken to the Lina Soh Hospital on board of one such transport, after the raid on his gallery resulted in him attempting suicide.

Characteristics
While similar to many other small transports, the Imperial ambunauts were emergency medspeeders equipped with sirens shrill enough to pierce through the cacophony of Coruscant traffic, as well as stabilizer technology that allowed for a smooth ride.
