Description: A model of police droid existed during the later Republic Era and was utilized by the police force of a city on an astronomical object. They had a humanoid body shape and black and light-grey plating and no visible sensors. On the front of their head was written "Z|18" in Aurebesh writing, while on the back of their head was written "POLICE". On the left side of their chest was the emblem of the police force. They spoke Basic with a robotic tone. They wielded RG-4D blaster pistols and electro batons.
